CASE REPORT SYMPOSIUM PRESENTATION INSTRUCTIONS

The case report symposium is taking place Friday, May 1, 2026 @ 09:00 – 10:00 in Bannerman Ballroom at the SJCC.

Presentation Instructions (PLEASE BE PREPARED AND ON TIME)

- Each presenter is allotted 8 minutes for presentation and 2 minutes for questions, with a maximum of 8 slides (including the title slide).
- Please adjust your title and structure your slides so that the diagnosis is not revealed prematurely, allowing the audience and the AI tool used by the moderators to work through the case.
- Presentations format:
 - Title slide (1 slide)
 - Case summary (2–3 slides)
 - A single multiple-choice question slide inviting the audience to identify the diagnosis (1 slide)
 - Discussion (2–3 slides)
- In addition, please provide a written case summary (without the diagnosis) for use by the moderators' to input into the AI platform. This summary should include all key clinical details being presented to the audience (e.g., history, physical examination findings, laboratory and imaging results).

Presentation Format

- All presentations MUST be Microsoft PowerPoint in 16:9 ratio
- All final presentations must be pre-submitted via email to meetings@ammi.ca no later than Monday April 20, 2026*
- Please identify file name with Submission ID and presenting author surname and first initial (e.g.: 15SabourinK)

Speaker Ready Room (Placentia Bay Room, Delta St. John's)

A Speaker Ready Room is available on site for presenters to review and finalize their presentations at least 24 hours prior to their scheduled session. All presentations must be uploaded in the Speaker Ready Room and will be transferred to the session rooms by the AV team. Please note that no changes can be made in the session rooms.
